April-May 2015 CPO average selling price

- For the month of April 2015, CPO price saw its lowest at Rp7.1mn/mt and recovered slightly in May 2015 to Rp7.3mn/mt. However because of strengthening USD to Rupiah, April-May prices appeared to be declined lower to USD546/mt and USD556/mt respectively.

- Despite current pressure on the CPO prices, our view remain favorable for the long-term; considering the growing global demand driven by increasing edible oil consumption for both food and fuel.
